Virtual Trade Mission to the Dominican Republic

Virtual

September 8-9, 2022

Purpose: The Dominican Republic holds vast opportunities for Florida companies interested in increasing their footprint in the largest economy in the Caribbean. Facilitated by the U.S-Central America Free Trade Agreement, the U.S. has become the chief trading partner for the Dominican Republic and exporters benefit from reduced tariffs and barriers.

During the Virtual Trade Mission, one-on-one, video conferences were arranged with pre-screened representatives, distributors and/or buyers from the Dominican Republic and the Caribbean. Participating companies were pre-qualified by the U.S. Commercial Service in Santo Domingo and The American Chamber of Commerce of the Dominican Republic.
